 - i. Personal data provided within submission forms, comments and questions, including your name and/or email address if you provide these details. If you ask questions about our public services and programmes or provide information about your relationship with us, this may also reveal other personal data, e.g. your employment status, health information, or family relationships;
 - ii. Your email address and subscription preferences if you sign up for our newsletters or notifications, and how you utilise our emails, including whether you open them and which links you click; and
 - iii. Your Internet Protocol (“IP”) address, details of which device or version of web browser you used to access our website content, and other information about how you used our website;

- d. Personal data collected through CCTV or other monitoring and security mechanisms at the Government Administration Building in Grand Cayman and other locations, if these data were collected by the CIG Department of Facilities Management or by any other data controller and then lawfully disclosed to the OTP for a legitimate purpose (e.g. to investigate a breach of the law or a security incident);

- e. Personal data provided by a member of your family, your employer, or some other person who is closely connected to you if this is relevant to that person's engagement with the OTP or our functions; and
- f. Any other personal data where the collection is necessary to achieve our lawful purpose(s).

3. How We Use Your Personal Data

These are unrelated to the purposes for which the OTP processes your personal data and should be clearly and directly disclosed to you by the service provider through their own separate privacy notice. However, you may contact us to ask about our current service providers and specific instances, if any, that we are aware of where your personal data may be processed for a service provider's own purposes.
